BISHOP HARTLEY LAYS
STONE OF NEW EDIFICE

Great Crowd Witnesses Ceremonial Marking Event For
St. Vincent de Paul
Parish

Impressive and solemn ceremonies marked the formal laying of the corner stone of the new St. Vincent de Paul's Catholic congregation on Sunday afternoon. The exercises were attended and witnessed by a large number including visiting clergy, members of the parish and of sister parishes of Knox and adjoining counties, and other citizens and friends in Mt. Vernon.

Weather conditions were right. While those who were compelled to stand in the sun found the heat uncomfortable, possibly, those who enjoyed positions of vantage in shaded places found it possible to attend with entire pleasure and satisfaction. Weather conditions were such as might be expected to characterize a day in early July.

Large Crowd Present

At the hour announced for the beginning of the ceremonies a great crowd was present standing immediately before the edifice and along either side; outside, along the sidewalks stood many other spectators. Along East High street, east and west, were parked a large number of automobiles.

At 1:30 p. m. the men of the parish, meeting at the K. of C. hall marched to the church in a body forming a guard of honor throughout the entire time of the services. At 2:30 came the processional from the parochial residence escorting the Rt. Rev. Bishop Hartley of the diocese of Columbus.

Bishop Is Present

Participating in the ceremonies assisting Bishop Hartley in the impressive ceremonial were the following priests:

Deacons—Revs. Charles A. Watterson of Newark and A. Leininger of Zanesville.

Sub Deacon—Rev. Paul Rogers of Washington, D. C.

Master of Ceremonies—Rt. Rev. John O'Neil, V. G. of Columbus, assisted by Rt. Rev. Howard, L. L. D. of Columbus, chancellor of the diocese.

The chanting and singing were under the leadership of Rev. C. B. Tiepe of Danville.

Other visiting clergy present were the Revs. A. M. Loyden of Columbus, B. M. O'Boylan of Newark, W. Minder of Columbus, T. J. O'Reilly of Columbus, Rev. F. McCannally, Columbus, Rev. F. Miller, McConnellsville, and Rev. W. Sullivan, Johnstown.

The Cornerstone

The stone that was to be laid with solemn dignity and impressive formality previously had been made ready and it only remained for it to be dropped into place. Upon the south face of this stone, in Gothic lettering appeared the following inscription:

ST. VINCENT
DE PAUL'S CHURCH
1922.

Ephesians 2:20-21

Within the stone was placed a copper box containing a brief history of St. Vincent de Paul's parish; the names of members of the 1922 graduating class of St. Vincent de Paul's high school; copies of the daily papers of Mt. Vernon; a copy of the Columbian; photographs of the old church and its immediate surroundings.

At the conclusion of the ritualistic ceremony workmen came forward with mortar and with trowel prepared the bed in which the stone was to rest. Having blessed the stone and sprinkled it with holy water Bishop Hartley taking in his hand a trowel struck the stone upon each of its exposed faces.

Bishop Gives Address

Taking his position under a temporary structure at what will be the entrance to the new edifice when completed Bishop Hartley addressed the company present. He spoke with an impressive eloquence of the significance marking the ceremonial they had just witnessed. In their import they carry one back through the ages even to the time of Christ. These ceremonies emphasize what the Catholic church has been to all ages, all times and all classes of people.

To the right reverend speaker this ceremonial suggested four significant thoughts, divine faith, character and manhood, an awakened conscience, and the graces and blessings of Heaven. His address following was an exposition of these thoughts.

That the church brings to her children a knowledge of the supernatural was first advanced. God has in His mercy and goodness has given us peace of mind, joy of heart and glory in eternal salvation.

No matter where the Catholic church is found there she will be found trying to build up manhood and character. Her history is before us. This is what she has been trying to do for all people in all ages. Always the church has laid down the principles of truth, justice and morality.

The church, too, has been a grand, a magnificent light to conscience. Conscience is God's eternal monitor. awakening us to a sense of our responsibility to God and to mankind. The soul of man wishes peace with God, our neighbors and ourselves. The happiest moment in the life of every man is that when he makes his peace with God. The church tries to be a guide to conscience and show when we are wrong and to direct us to the right. It brings the graces and blessings of Heaven to all mankind. It brings peace of mind, joy of heart, consolation in sorrow, and courage in the hour of death.

Reference was made to the history of the church in past ages. Mistakes have been made and wrongs have been done and injuries performed and many times the church has been blamed for them all.

Points Out Way

Contrary to the opinion held by some of the Catholic church does not believe that those who do not believe as it does will be damned. She only points out the way and the means of salvation. She believes God will give to each person the grace of salvation in His own wonderful way. The church holds that God offers to all the graces of salvation. The responsibility for accepting or refusing rests with the individual.

Bishop Hartley concluded his illuminating talk with a brief epitome of the life and works of St. Vincent de Paul, from whom this parish takes its name and who is its patron.

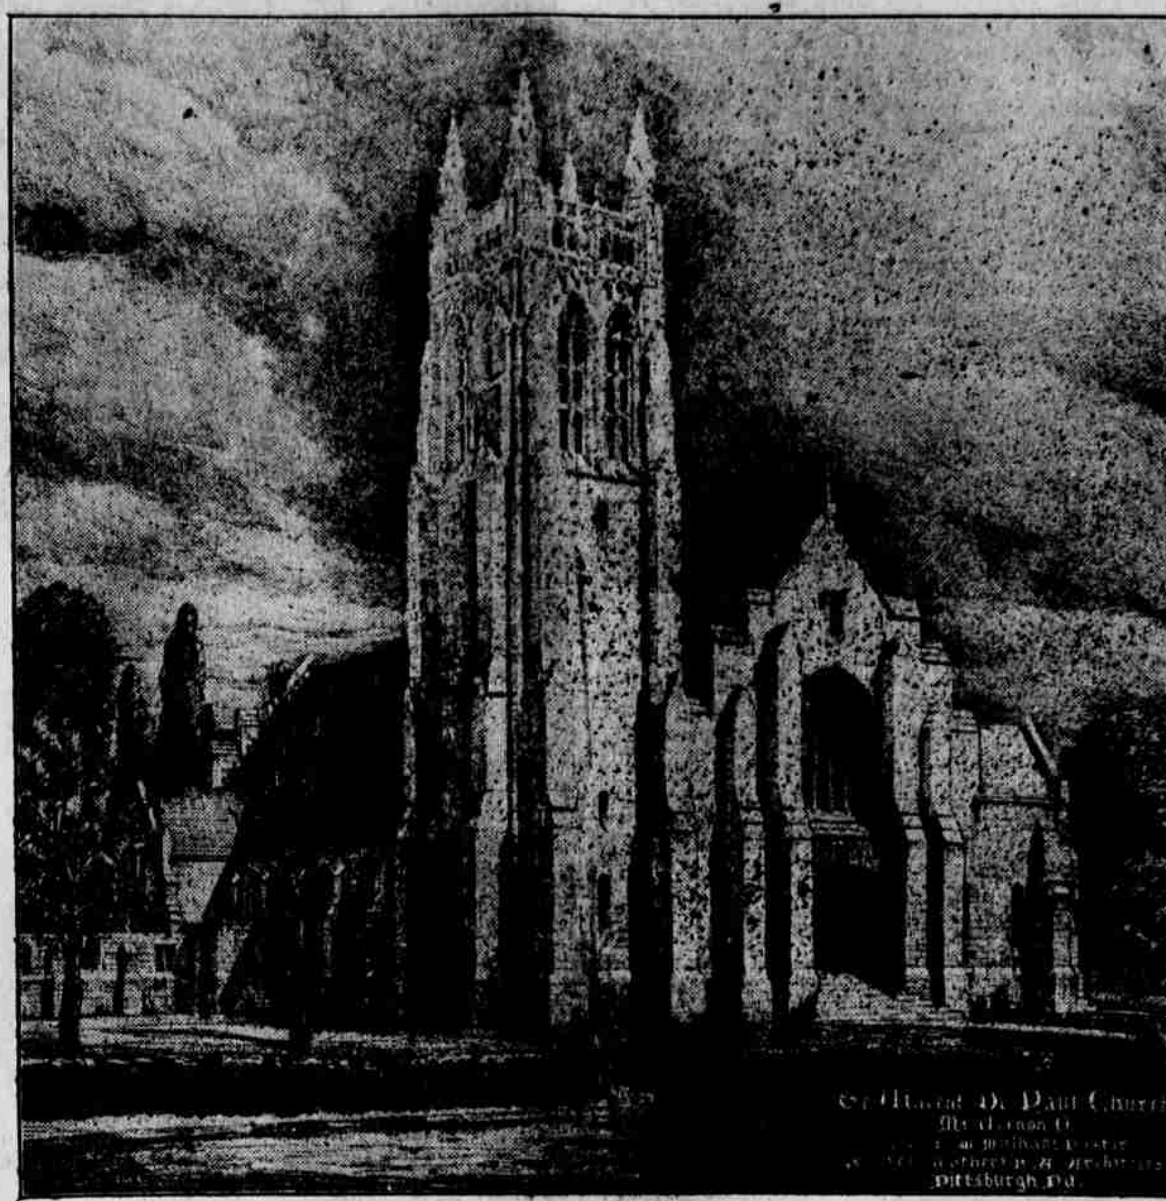

Throughout the service a patriotic significance was given to the ceremonies by the display made of the American flag.

The visiting clergy were entertained at dinner by the Sisters of Charity.

Whistles Give Final Note Of Warning To Employees
During The Day

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS)

CHICAGO, July 10—The crucial stage of the railroad strike was reached today. National guardsmen were on duty in Illinois and under arms in four other states. U. S. marshals were in charge of law enforcement machinery at various points.

Shop and roundhouse whistles gave the final note of railroads' ultimatum canceling seniority and pension rights of strikers who refused to return to the shops today.

The tenth day of the strike was marked by the determination of both sides to stand by their position taken at the outset, and indications pointed to a deadlock.

State troops patrolled the Illinois Central yards and shops at Clinton, Ill., while at Bloomington city and county officials admitted the collapse of civil authority.

National guard companies were mobilized in Missouri and Kansas.

Officials of the Missouri-Pacific announced the annulment of 30 passenger trains on the company's eastern division, adding that trains on other divisions would be discontinued.

Disorders spread to the east when the homes of two B. & O. employees who refused to join the strikers were bombed at New Castle, Pa. A striker was shot at New Castle.

In most places where appeals for troops were made, the strikers said all possible efforts would be made to preserve order and they denounced the appeal for troops.

Circulars addressed to "the shop men, maintenance of way men, clerks and others affected by the wage reduction," urging defiance of the courts and the armed forces of the United States, were reported to have been found on the doorsteps of many railroad workers in New York. Union leaders said the circulars would be turned over to the federal authorities. The circulars were signed by Jay Davis, executive secretary, central committee of the Community party of America.

Verdict Of Embezzlement Is Set Aside By Judge Calvin H. Wood

Defendants Also Are Found
Not Guilty Of Violating
Ohio Blue Sky Laws

In a lengthy written opinion, Judge Calvin H. Wood of Mt. Gilead, Morrow county, has set aside the verdict of embezzlement in the case of Ohio vs. C. B. Carpenter, former official of the Knox Tire and Rubber Company, and in another written opinion the court holds the defendant not guilty of violating the Blue Sky laws of the state of Ohio.

A copy of the two opinions were received by Judge Frank O. Levering one of the attorneys for Carpenter, on Monday afternoon.

In concluding his opinion in the embezzlement case Judge Wood says:

"In setting aside the verdict granting a new trial, I do so without criticism of the jury, as the questions involved was more for the court to apply the law to the admitted facts in the case than for the jury to determine the facts."

The case was taken to Morrow county from Knox county on a charge of venue.

In the case of the State of Ohio vs. C. B. Carpenter, et al, charged with violating the blue sky laws of the state of Ohio, Judge Wood in his opinion held the defendant not guilty and says in conclusion: "There will be a finding in favor of the defendants, finding them not guilty. A motion for a new trial will be overruled with exceptions."

In his opinion Judge Wood held there is no law requiring the defendant to file a copy of the contract with Jenkins & Co., with the state securities department.
